All Donations UUSC-UUA Haiti Relief

Organizations receiving UUSC-UUA funding include MPP (Papaye Peasant Movement), the Lambi Fund of Haiti, COZPAM (Platform of Community Organizations of the Port-au-Prince Metropolitan Zone) in Port-au-Prince and CROSE (Regional Coordination of Southeast Organizations) in Jacmel.

MPP (Papaye Peasant Movement) has been granted to provide transportation to people leaving the capital, run a shelter in Papaye out of their training center, provide food for people in the hospital in Hinche, and provide food supplements to peasant families taking in earthquake survivors. The MPP is buying food and supplies from local producers where possible to strengthen the local economy; domestic production is often gravely undercut when massive amounts of aid is imported following a disaster. The Lambi Fund of Haiti has received a grant to supply their community groups in rural areas that are receiving earthquake survivors from the city. In many communities, there is an immediate need to double their food supplies to ensure that everyone can eat. The Lambi Fund is also sourcing from local producers. <http://www.lambifund.org/>

UUSC is working with sister organization ActionAid USA to organize supplies and logistics for two grassroots organizations, COZPAM (Platform of Community Organizations of the Port-au-Prince Metropolitan Zone) in Port-au-Prince and CROSE (Regional Coordination of Southeast Organizations) in Jacmel. This will help them distribute essential items to earthquake survivors in the areas where they work. This aid will include food and essential gender-specific nonfood items such as cooking pots, sanitary supplies, and water containers.

All Are Welcome. Spread the word. Bring your friends!
